A well maintained modern three bedroom semi-detached house is located within this attractive and recently developed residential area of Allscott, offering well-presented accommodation ideally suited to first-time buyers, young families or investors. The property occupies a pleasant position on The Clayfields within the popular Allscott Meads development, which has been created on the former British Sugar factory site between the historic market town of Shrewsbury and Wellington. The area combines modern housing with open green spaces and countryside surroundings while remaining conveniently located for local amenities and commuter routes. Allscott is a small village community positioned in a semi-rural setting while remaining within easy reach of nearby towns. Local amenities can be found in nearby Wellington, while a wider range of shopping, leisure and cultural facilities are available in Shrewsbury. The surround Shropshire countryside provides excellent opportunities for walking and outdoor recreation, making the location appealing for those seeking a balance between town and country living. The property is well positioned for commuting with convenient access to several major routes including: A442 providing a direct link into Telford and connections across the Telford area, A5 offering routes towards Shrewsbury and the wider midlands motorway network, M54 motorway accessible from Telford, providing onward travel to Wolverhampton and Birmingham. Rail services are available from Wellington, and Shrewsbury stations, both offering regular services regional and national destinations.
